MAYFLOWER PROOFS

RIDLEY - OTTLEY LINE had to be Separated into 2 notebooks. Too large

This one is Ridley Family 1 + Ridley Family 2
Ethel⁵ Carlton⁴ Albert³ Thor² Wm¹ Mahala² Wm¹

I kept the birth, marriage & death certificates proof in this notebook for simplicity & easy access.

Ottley & earlier wills are in Ottley / Porter notebook.

In my opinion Helen Post Ridley confused the 2 Ridley families — figuring that Wm¹ Conford ~~Ridley~~ or Wm¹ Ridley is Beckley Church Eng — BUT

it is Mahala's family that were in my dear Oliver

I came in possession of the enclosed information regarding the Humphrey Family last year but having been so sick I did not get it to you before

If you look in the library at page 454 of vol 5 of the Compendium of genealogy by Virkus

Institute of American Genealogy

You will find out all about your mother's family and lineage and see that you are eligible for membership in the Sons of American Revolution on that side also Excuse bad writing as my hand is still weak. Come in and see me sometime.

Mrs. Helen Post Ridley

Mrs. Helen Post Ridley, age 67, died Thursday morning (April 13 1944) at the Clifton Springs Sanitarium after a lingering illness. She was a life-long resident of this vicinity, and a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Wideawake Grange.

She was best known in this area for her extensive work in Genealogy. In 1939 when the Town of Phelps was celebrating the sesqui-centennial of the founding of this community, she served as historian on the committee. With untiring and devoted effort she traced the complete history of this community, provided the necessary historical data for the staging of the Pageant, and wrote the book, "When Phelps Was Young." One of the outstanding events celebrated was the founding of Melvin Hill, a historic site in the Town of Phelps founded by Jonathan Melvin who was a direct ancestor of Mrs. Ridley's late husband.

She is survived by two sons, Arthur E. of Owego, S. Y. and Floyd C. of Phelps, two grandchildren, Oliver Humphery of Canandaigua and Ann Ridley of Owego.

Funeral services were held from her late home at 8 Banta St., Phelps on Saturday at 2 P. M. with the Rev. Charles Dayton officiating. Burial in the Riverside Cemetery at Plainville.

Helen's husband Carlton Ridley.
Carlton was not related to Jonathan Melvin. ^{deed} 06 + 15 wrong

(Anna Ridley)

Please note that Thomas Ridley served in Co. K, 2nd Reg't, 9th Heavy Artillery, enlisting in Canandaigua in 1862 and also in Co. F, 9th Reg't Heavy Artillery. I do not know his rank or where he served and would appreciate any information about his service.

Thomas Ridley m1. Dec. 5, 1847 in Dansville, Steuben Co. NY. to his cousin Mahala Ridley, who died in June 1852 according to his Pension papers. Mahala died in Michigan, (while visiting her brother there according to family lore) Helen (Post) Ridley wrote that Mahala's parents were William and Sarah Orfins Ridley but I have not found any information about them. See OFFENS family

Thomas had a second wife who may have been Thankful Reynolds because, Thomas Ridley and Thankful Reynolds, both of Phelps, were married 24 Oct. 1862 in Orleans, Ontario Co. N.Y. by Mr. Warner. Marriage was publ. Geneva Gazette 31 Oct. 1862

Thomas didn't mention the name of his 2nd wife on his Pension papers, but indicated that she died about 40 yrs ago (1867)

Thomas stated on his pension papers that he had 2 children. His son Albert Ridley disappeared about 1882 according to family records. His daughter Anna Ridley married George Washington Ottley.

Any additional info. about either wife of Thomas Ridley would be appreciated.

To Whom it May Concern:

I, Ann E. Ridley Kirkpatrick, am writing to confirm that I am the granddaughter and oldest survivor of Carleton E. Ridley who on October 30, 1905 purchased Lot 110 in the Gypsum Cemetery, which is located in the Town of Phelps, Ontario Co. N.Y. This cemetery is also known as the Plainview and/or Riverview Cemetery.

Currently buried on that lot are Carleton (died in 1921) and his wife Helen (Post) Ridley (died in 1944). Also on that lot are their daughters, Emma (died in 1905) and Ethel (Ridley) Humphrey (died in 1925).

Carleton and Helen Ridley had two sons, Arthur Eugene (died in 1965) and Floyd Carleton (died 1972). They along with their wives are buried in Phelps and Newark respectively. Arthur and Genevieve Ridley had one daughter, Ann Elizabeth and one son, Robert John (died 1999). Floyd and Dorothy Ridley had no children.

Carleton and Helen Ridley's daughter Ethel R. Humphrey had one son Oliver Humphrey who died in 1976 and is buried in Resthaven cemetery in Phelps. Oliver's wife Jacqueline (Baker) Humphrey will also be buried in Resthaven. From their marriage they produced two children, Sandra J. Humphrey and Stephan A. Humphrey. Both reside in Florida and it is their desire to be buried in the Phelps area.

I Ann (Ridley) Kirkpatrick, (born 1937), the only living child of Arthur and Genevieve Ridley have no interest in being buried in Lot 110 of the Plainview/Riverview cemetery and do hereby give permission for the children (Sandra and Stephan) and/or grandchildren of my cousin Oliver Humphrey to use this plot for any future burials of their family members.

Dear Jackie,

I am finally getting this document off to you regarding the cemetery. Sorry it has taken so long, but work has been hectic and then the notary had to get a new seal as her other one broke in the process so it took a little longer than I had intended. I hope this will suffice in the event that Sandra or Stephan would ever want to use it.

It has been a long, cold winter here, but spring seems to be just around the corner and the robins are back so that is always a good sign. I have undergone several medical tests over the past three months but they found nothing of significance to explain any of the problems I have had. So they put me on a medication to help with excess stomach acid, and I showed a lack of B-12 in my blood tests so am taking that. The B-12 seems to have helped my light-headedness and the stomach has been better so I guess that will be my regimen for now. After all the scopings etc., at least it was good to know that nothing else showed up.

I am having 15 people for Easter dinner, two of the girls and their families and some of our cousins on my mother's side from Phelps. The other two girls are with their in-laws for this holiday. It is always an easy dinner as I have Ham and that isn't difficult to fix. The girls will bring side dishes and I will also make a couple of things. Now that we are so many, the girls usually bring dishes to pass for all our get-togethers so that makes it easier on me.

Haven't gotten to answering all your questions about the family, but will go through my mother's stuff again and find the dates of my grandparents births and deaths. Don't really know much of anything else about my brother's wives families, nor do I know anything more about Ellen's ex-husband. Whatever I can answer, I will as soon as I find the time to go digging for the info.

Hope this finds you well and enjoying your Florida lifestyle as much as possible. At least you are out of these cold northern winters.

Love,

Ann

Back again - yes I knew you were in the flesh year when Oliver came down he told me you wanted to come down but your vacation was out & you had to go back before you could ^{get} all the places you wanted to. I was sorry not to see you but so very happy to see Allie - he was such a fine person and I just can't make it seem possible he is gone -

I'm very sorry I didn't know you had to buy cemetery lots in Reethaven as there are I believe 3 lots left on the Ridley lot in the Plainsville cemetery which is out in the country between Phelps & Clifton - I really don't know of anyone who would use them -
On that lot in Plainsville, Mother & Father Ridley, a sister ^{of Ethel} Inna who died in very early childhood & Ethel (Oliver's mother) are buried - it is a full size lot of 12 as far as I know - Arthur is buried on the Lynch lot in the Catholic part of the Phelps Cemetery, and Dutch is buried on our lot in Newark Cemetery which we share with my family on my father's side - and that's

Dear Jackie:

Was so happy to hear from you. I know how busy you are with every thing to do, and we are never ready to take over - I agree it is better to keep busy, I still have to do that, but it sounds like you are trying to do too much - you have to take care of yourself - when Steve gets home it will be easier to do things with someone to help - Do plan on spending some time with Sandi, it will be good to have a change of scenery and be with her - it would be real great for both of you -

According to TV today Nystat is not having the best weather, shows picture of a place near Albany with 6" of snow with temperatures around 40° that isn't May weather - probably last storm of season - we have been having beautiful weather, but so dry my yard has been brown instead of green but last Sat eve had a real good rain about 3" but still all the family that I know any thing about - hope I've helped out.

I'm still trying to figure how I can come up North this summer - had hoped I could have this place sold before summer then there wouldn't be any problems - but I don't like to leave without someone to look after the house, so I'll see if I can find someone and if I can get it all arranged I will come North, there are so many I would like to see - will sure plan on seeing you if I come up - it has been such a long time -

Certainly feel sorry for Cordelia that is quite an operation at her age - I had a letter from Mary Alice Ridley who is a very good friend of hers - they belong to a couple card clubs & she said she was getting along real well - can't understand why she waited so long, probably she had a reason. Do you ever go down to Newark?

I only work at the office one day a week so I have lots of time to keep things going around here - So I understand with you working all the week you find it hard to do all the extra things beside taking care of the lawn - I like a man to mow the lawn - Dutch would never let me ride the big mower so I decided I wouldn't do it after he was gone -

I know how lonely you are without Allie but as you say, you wouldn't have wanted him to have lived for several years & been an invalid, that would have been unbearable for you both -

Had letter from Ann the other day said the new baby was doing great, cute as could be & very good - she has plenty to keep her busy with 4 girls - the oldest will be 10 soon -

Do take care, don't try to do every thing, think of you very often - wish I were nearer by - God be with you

Dear Jackee:

Finally today I took the cemetery deed and had a copy made - you will note in 1905 it was Gypsum Cem. it is near Plainville - It doesn't state in the deed there is room for 12 burials - and as stated you there are 4 buried as it. It sure would be nice if someone could use the remaining 8 lots.

Doesn't seem possible I have been home nearly a month got here Sept 16th - came back on the auto train - everyone that it would be better, so to make them happy
I did it.

We have had some warm weather since I've been back
+ a shower nearly every afternoon, but now they forecast cooler temps guess it is much cooler up your way now also -

Again certainly did enjoy seeing you and wish you could take a vacation & come down & see me - I do have plenty of room just let me know I'm sure Lettie would like to have you come down too -

I seem to keep busy, work couple days a week & the ladies here in the complex have started a craft class so think that will be fun -

after I got home, got some furniture for my patio - couple chairs, some small tables & several plants I am real proud of it & will enjoy it this fall -

Hope you are able to keep up with every thing - don't work too hard - you have so much to take care of - but it is such a beautiful home it would be hard to leave.

Have a nice fall & sure hope your winter won't be too bad -

Dear Sir,

Sorry I did not get back to you sooner, but there was so much snow on the lot. We drew up a diagram of Lot 110. I hope it will help you. This lot was bought at the time they were using pine topes. With the Vaults we use now there would be plenty of room for 4 graves. But very tight for 5 graves. We have no record of Emma Ottley Ridley on this lot. There is no stone for her. Our records that we have on burial starts in 1913. A period of years they have disappeared.

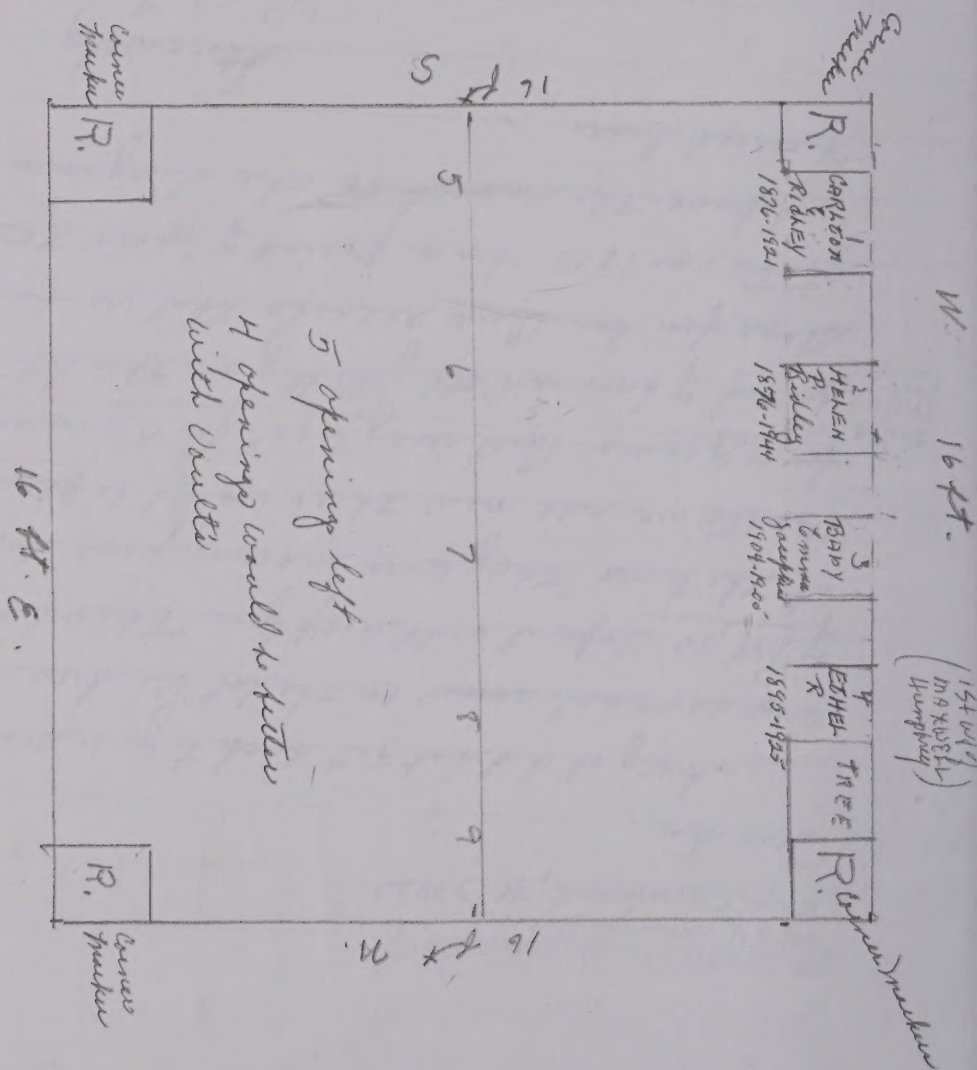

I have the names on the diagram that was buried here.

Hello Jackie,

I have searched all through any papers that I have from my mother and can find no deed to that cemetery where my Ridley grandparents are buried. I believe that if anyone had that deed, it would have been my Aunt Dorothy because she and her husband would have been the ones to have held the papers from my grandmother Ridley's estate.

I received very little from my Aunt's estate because it was taken over by a woman in FL. who my aunt trusted, but in the end she sort of fleeced me out of what was due me.

So all I can say is that if and when you or your children would like to arrange for burial there, I would be happy to write a letter stating that I am the oldest heir of the Ridley family and that I give my permission for them to be buried on that lot. I would probably have it notarized so that it would be official. Certainly no one in my family will be planning on using that lot.

I hope you had a good holiday. I wasn't feeling well for a good part of the week and Jim had bronchitis but we are both okay now.

My best to you for the NEW YEAR.

Jackie, In response to my brother, he had three wives. The first, Irene Zasa and he had two children.

Michael, who is married to Kim Hill in Nov. of 1995. Or 96 and they have one daughter Michaela born Dec 2002. Bob's daughter Beth married Richard Mody on Sept. 25th 2004. She has one son Tristan Perry born in 1995. I believe Bob and Irene divorced in 1981.

Bob's second wife was Margaret Brown, they divorced and I have no knowledge of where she is. His third wife was Dawn Lucia and she had three children by her previous marriage to Richard Lucia. Her children are Richard, Ryan and Randy (a girl). She lives in Lee Center, but I do not know about her children. The last I knew none of them was married, but the oldest son had two children. I don't have much contact with her (her choice) now that my brother is gone.

I am not even sure if you have all the accurate update on my family. Both Julie and Laurie were married in 2002. Julie has a new son Samuel born on Sept. 3 2003.

Also Ellen now has two sons, Ryan (9/21/01) and Andrew (5/04/03). If you need anything else let me know.

The fact that you have the receipt for the cemetery lot is probably as good as the deed. I wish I knew who was in charge of that cemetery, but really don't even know who I would call. I wonder if they have a website?? Probably not as it is pretty much a defunct cemetery at this time.

Keep in touch.

Suggested letter for Ann to notary for Stephan & Sandra Jan 2005

The purpose of this letter is to simplify future burials in Lot 110 in the Gypsum/Plainsville/Riverview Cemetery in Ontario County New York, in or near the Township of Phelps.

Carlton E. Ridley purchased Lot 110 on October 30, 1905 in the Gypsum Cemetery, believed to be in the Town of Phelps, Ontario Co. N.Y. This cemetery is also known as the Plainview and Riverview Cemetery.

Carlton (died 1921) and his wife Helen (Post) Ridley (died 1944) and their daughters Ethel R. (Ridley) Humphrey (died 1925, wife of Maxwell J. Humphrey), and baby Emma Josephine Ridley (died 1905) were also buried in lot 110.

Ethel Ridley Humphrey had an only child Oliver Carlton Humphrey who died 1976 and was buried in Resthaven Cemetery in Phelps as was his father Maxwell Humphrey who died in 1969. Oliver's wife Jacqueline (Baker) Humphrey will be buried with her husband Oliver in Resthaven Cemetery.

Oliver and Jacqueline have two children, Sandra Jean Humphrey born in 1948 and Stephan A. Humphrey born in 1954, who have an interest in being buried in Lot 110. Both reside in Florida in 2005.

Carlton and Helen Ridley had two other children Arthur (died 1965) who married Genevieve Lynch (died 1989) and Floyd Ridley (died 1972) who married Dorothy Fisk (died 1997).

Floyd and Dorothy ^{Ridley} had no issue and were buried elsewhere. ~~They had no issue.~~

Arthur and Genevieve ^{Ridley} were buried in St. Francis Cemetery in Phelps.

I am Ann (Ridley) Kirkpatrick, (born 1936), the only living child of Arthur and Genevieve Ridley. None of my family, including myself, have any interest in being buried in this plot.

I would like to record that I, and my family, have no objection to the children or grandchildren of my first cousin, the late Oliver Humphrey, to use this plot for their own burials.

General Information

This book contains a history of the old and honorable family of Ottley in England and of their descendants in America, and of the Gates, Porter, and Dexter families, with which they intermarried in their first generations in this country. Thro these families will be found evidence which permits membership in the "Sons of the Revolution" "American Pioneers", and in the female line "The Women of New England, and "Colonial Dames" thro William Gates and Elkanah Porter whose services in the War of the Revolution are herein given.

The Ottleys came to America in 1805.

Much of the Ottley information came from Mrs. Lucetta (Gilbert) Ottley, the widow of James Ottley of Glen Cove, Long Island. Her husband was the son of Enoch Ottley and Mary Wing and the grandson of William and Lydia (Peck) Ottley. This family went in the early days to Texas and later to New York City, where James became the owner and publisher of Mc Call's Magazine. He was the original maker of the paper pattern for dress making and thru royalties, etc. he became very wealthy. This property has been greatly increased by his descendants, his son Godfrey Ottley has now a seat in the Stock Exchange and lives in a beautiful home on Long Island built from plans of the old Ottley house in England.

William and Lydia Ottley had three sons and six daughters. The sons now have descendants as follows, William P., grandfather of Roy. Enoch was father of James Ottley of N.Y.C. Thomas M. married Fanny Henry and went to Chicago. This family have been lost from our records. The five daughters married,

- Hemmingway of Buffalo
- Bannister of Phelps
- Dimmock of Melvin Hill
- Van Auken of Phelps
- Stone of Gorham
- and one remained single

From Bannister we have Loa Whitney, Henry Whitney and the Hueston family of Phelps

From Stone, Douglas Lincoln a grand-child

From Van Auken, the families of Harold Vandusen and his sister Alice, now living in the Rochester area.

- From Hemmingway, parties living in Buffalo

The foregoing information concerns the families descending from the children of William Ottley of Oak's Corners (1805) the older brothers of Thomas Ottley, who settled near Seneca Castle, both were born in England and buried in the "Joslyn" cemetery near Oak's Corners.

William was called Capt. Ottley for his interest in the Militia of that time. They bought their land of Jonathan Melvin 1805.

- The Hemingway family were interested in very extensive stage coach lines, Stone was a teacher, the others farmers.

A Genealogical Record of the Ottley Family, their antecedents and descendants of many generations, prepared by Helen P. Ridley, while acting as historian for the Ottley Family Assoc., beginning with David de Otely who dwelt in Elmsmere Castle in 1280 to Floyd C. Ridley of Newark, New York.

Remarks on Genealogical Research, by Mrs. Ridley-- It is fitting and commendable for one to acquire a reasonable knowledge of his ancestry, to trace the lines of one's family descent, at least thru a few generations with percission and accuracy. Most families are coming to realize the importance of such information. A high degree of prestige attaches to an honorable pedigree, and the study of genealogy is of compelling interest to an extent never before attained in America. Its distinctive value is now fully appreciated. While many obstacles are encountered in pursuit of research among early generations of American families, preserved in family bibles, tomb-stone records found in isolated grave-yards, with the lack of vital statistics which obtained in early times, never-the-less a large and trustworthy fund of information has been gathered and published. This shows the trend and the origin of many old families. The difficulties of research in many families has been increased by the changes in residence while the country was developing, so that branches became disjointed from the parent stock, thus in a measure obscuring their relationship to the original family. To locate a family at its immergence from the parent - stock at some particular point and trace its pedigree, trace its divergence from the old family, and its development thru the succeeding generations, to work all these threads into a record of homogeneity in accordance with the laws of family growth is a task of compelling interest to the genealogist. It has its reward in the unfolding of the scheme of human character and life, whose lines give form and contour to the generations.

The Ancient Family of Ottley

The earliest trace of this family is found in England, in what is now known as Shropshire County. Like the English language itself, it has come to us after many mutations, first Othalie, then Oteei, then Otely next Oteley and finally Ottley. This was caused by the fact that England was itself under the Saxon, Norman and French forms of government during these years. The earliest mention of the name is in the writings of Llywarch (Lhy'-work) Hen a poet who is supposed to have lived about the end of the sixth century. He came from North Umbria to take refuge with Cynddylan, (Kin'-de-lan) Prince of the Powys (Pow'iss) whose home was at Pengwern (Pang'-wern) which is now the ancient city of Shrewsbury. In 606 A.D. Broc-al, Prince of the Powys, had his palace in the ancient city of Shrewsbury. In the fifth and sixth centuries Shrewabury was known as "Schrobbesbyrig" and pronounced Se-robe'-es-brig which thru the mutations of time has become as now. Very little is known of this section during the sixth to tenth centuries. King Athelstane gave a tract of land to the Archbishop of York A.D. 925. This tract comprised eighty square miles, and was called "Othalie". In order to secure a certain uniformity of coinage. King Athelstane had "moneyers" in each town. One of these was "Othalie", another mention of the name is found in Domesday Book, that wonderful compilation made by the Conqueror's order, which records the name and status of every Saxon holder of property at the time of the conquest. This book, deposited in Westminster Abby, (Now in Washington, D.C.) holds records of one named Othalie, who held estates near the present site of the small city of Otly in Yorkshire. When William, the conqueror, created some of his various Dukes, Earls, and lesser nobility he conferred vast amounts of land upon them. In the year 1071 there was upon a hill, some kind of a wooden castle, surrounded by a moat and palisades. This was destroyed and a castle of stone erected on the site. To accomplish this he laid waste fifty-one houses and fifty more in 1086. It is vaguely determined that this was Elmsmere Castle, of which mention is made later. After King Henry's death in 1135, the country was ravaged by war for twenty years, between Mathilda and Stephen. Many records were lost at that time. The Welch then carried on wars for a long term which terminated in 1233 by Edward the 1. Twice had this immediate section been laid waste; by Llewellyn in 1215, and in 1234, when the whole country from the Welch border to Shrewsbury was made desolate by fire and sword. It is evident that the buildings, with few exceptions were of wood up to the fourteenth century. This fact coupled with the general devastation of the region accounts for the loss of records in this locality. Of the Norman period there are no old houses, only Town halls, churches and fragments of old walls. The disturbed condition of the country did not change this during the reign of the early Plantagenet Kings. The passing of the Grand Charter by John and its confirmation by Henry III in 1225, protecting the rights of the citizen of every degree inaugurated a new era. The great middle class of people, merchants, and men of business, arose. Districts were formed and Bailiffs who were elected annually grew to attain a position of affluence, sometimes building for themselves a strong place, capable of defense in emergency. Men were too much occupied with fighting and defending to give thought to the comforts and beautification of their homes. It was not until Henry VII came to the throne that the people wearied by the "Wars of the Roses", a war not of people but of contending houses, gladly submitted to a sovereign who would govern firmly, and assure peace. From this time England enjoyed under the Tudors, a period of uninterrupted peace and prosperity. Learning advanced, literature made marvelous advances culminating in the Elisabethian epoch --- the golden page of literature in England.

It was particularly during this period that the Ottley family grew into prominence and made itself felt in the re-foundation upon which England has rested for years. From the days of the Plantagenets the Ottley name has been of some prominence in the history of England, and has held its own thru a direct male line of descent since 1280.

As we look back over the history of this old and interesting family we see many facts are worthy of special mention. Among the first (in order of time) is David de Otely who is recorded as living in Elmsmere Castle in 1290. Nothing but ruins remain of the Castle, but it is one of the earliest locations on which we may look and know that it was the home of our ancestors.

Next in order of pedigree is William de Otely. Frequent mention of him is made in the early part of the fourteenth century. He was in the Siege of Clavarock in Scotland during the last year of the reign of Edward I (1306) as one of the body-guards of Prince Edward, later Edward II. It is on record that he guarded one of the towers at his own expense. In time of peace he was a "constable of Elmsmere", he it is whom the "Ottleys" must venerate for he laid the foundation of the "clan" or family of Ottley, and it was for him that the Arms and Crest of Ottley was created.

Mention should be made of Thomas Ottley of Shrewsbury. He was Bailiff from 1439 to 1443, was first alderman of Shrewsbury, and he purchased Pitchford, which became the home of future generations of the family; passing from father to son for 13 generations (334 years). These estates are now owned by the right Honorable, Lord of Hawksbury, Earl of Liverpool, whose great grand mother was Catherine Banks. (See Summary of lineage). Thomas Oteley had two sons born in 1469, twins, Robert and William. William married Margery, the daughter of Bruyn of the Haye. They had eight sons and twelve daughters. One of these was "Thomas of Pitchford" and he married the daughter of Sir Richard Corbet, of an old and honorable family. Sir Francis Ottley, Knight, 1601-1649, was a man of fame and fortune. He was the Lord Lieutenant of Shrewsbury, he was knighted by King Charles I, and he married the Lady Lettice Ridgeway, daughter of Thomas Ridgeway who was the Earl of Londonderry. From this point every lineal descendant can claim a trace of royal blood.

Copy of the old lease which is the property of "The Ottley Family Association"

There are many desirable pieces of property in England that have been left to the College of Oxford by people who are interested in education and have no heirs. These are let out to good tenants, thus securing an income for the college. A few years ago the college needing more funds, offered old papers for sale. Thru an advertisement in the "American Genealogist" magazine a dealer came into correspondence with Helen P. Ridley, as historian for the Association. The old sheepskin was sent on approval. It was submitted to authorities and found to be authentic, a collection was taken at the annual meeting and the lease was purchased. It is written in a very quaint old form and bears a revenue stamp of the reign of King William III of England, and a personal signature of Thomas Otely, 1698.

This indenture was made the seventh day of April in the year of the reign of our Soverign Lord, William the third, by the grace of God of England, Scotland and Ireland, King defender of the Faith. Anno Domii 1696. Between Timothy Salton, Dr. in Divinity, provost and the scholars of Queens College, Oxford on the one side and Thomas Otely of Marsh Baldon, of the County of Oxford on the other side, ----- Witnesseth, ----- that the said provost and scholars have devised, granted, and farm-let, and by these presents do so devise, grant and farm-let unto the said Thomas Otely -----All that, their massuage, tenement, cow-house, and garden-plot, and other the premises we left to the said Thomas Otely, situate and lying in the town of Baldon, County of Oxford, and formerly the possession of Lettice Winslow, widow, amd abutting on the highway on the east and abutting on the highway on the south and on lands of Robert Phumore on the north and west to have and to hold. The massuage, tenement, cow-house, and garden plot, and all other premises we let unto the said Thomas Otely from the feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, last past before the date here of, until the full term of one and twenty years, those next following to be full and completed. And paying therefor and yearly during the said term unto the provost and scholars or their seniors, the whole sum of two shillings, six pence of good and lawful money of England, on the two most usual of days of payment, namely, the Feast of St. Michael of the Archangel, and of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in equal portion. And if it so happens that the said yearly rent or any portion of it remain unpaid or be behind for the space of one month in any year on which it ought to be paid, that then from thenceforth, this indenture shall be wholly void as if it never was made or granted.
And Thomas Otely doth for himself, his executors, administrators, and assigns also covenant, promise and grant, and we the said provost, scholars, and their seniors, do agree --- that is to say, that the said Thomas Otely shall from time to time and at all times during the term of said lease shall well

and sufficiently repair ~~xxx~~ Mansion, and keep all and singular the Massuage, cow-house, tenement, and any other buildings, the ditches, mounds now being on the premises in good state of repair. The whole being kept in suitable condition for the term. Then upon the ending of the lease he shall yield up peaceably and quietly and leave the premises.
Having had sufficient large timber, if taken in proper season, and as much of the tops and shroud as is necessary to repair of fences, during the term; and after that the said Thomas Otley shall discharge and bear all manner of taxes, levies, garden-plot, or massuage, without the consent of the provost, scholars or the seniors, and their common seal obtained after suitable notice thereof. One part of these indentures to be with Thomas Otely, the other to remain with Queens College, Oxford, its provost, scholars and seniors. The said Thomas Otely hath set his hand and seal on the day and month written above

Thomas Otely

On the reverse side of this parchment Thomas Otely "for the sum of five pounds to him paid doth transfer to Thomas Coney of Foot Baldon all rights and privileges mentioned in the lease" This is dated March 30, 1698 with a very clear signature of "Thomas Otely". He died in the fall of that year and was buried at Pitchford, a few miles distant.

This parchment was bought for $6.00 in 1933.

NARRATIVE

The "Place of Ottley" mentioned in the Domesday Book (the first attempt at a census ever made), means the field of Othe which was a personal appellation before and after the conquest in A.D. 1066. This was one of the great Saxon parishes and contained eighty square miles. It was there that the Ottley family had its beginnings. This manor was given to the then Archbishop of York by King Athelstane A.D. 925. The site of this ancient manor is still called the "Manor House". David de Oteley dwelt in "Elmsmere Castle" A.D. 1280. His son William, lived there also - this is the man who won the coat-of-arms at the siege of Claverock in Scotland. We can find no record of his wife or mother, but his son was William, Lord of Morton, whose wife's name was Henaud. William died Sept. 6, 1409. And his son was Richard who married a Whord. They had George de Otely, who married Anne Wiley, then came Phillip de Otely whose wife was Anne Corbert. Then Thomas de Oteley who married Margaret Blount, he was born in 1409 and died in 1487. They had Richard de Otley (1439) who married Margery Bwyn, and their son was Thomas of Pitchford 1469-1534, whose wife was the daughter of Sir Richard Corbet, they had a son, who married Margaret Leighton, he was born in 1543, and his son was called Oteei, his first name Adam, and he married Marie Wainwaring and died Oct. 16, 1578. Then came Thomas Oteej whose wife was Mary Gifford. Their son was Sir Francis Ottly, born 1601 died 1659- he married the Lady Lettice Ridgeway, daughter of Thomas Ridgeway, Earl of Londonderry. He was knighted by King Charles I, his son was Thomas born in 1650 and married to Elizabeth Baldwin. They are the people who made the old lease now owned by the association of Ottley descendants. He died in 1698 soon after the transfer of the lease, they had Adam who married Bridget the daughter of Sir William Gresby, their son was Thomas born 1716. He died at the age of 91, his wife being Catherine Banks daughter of the Lord of Hawksbury; he left a son William born at Pitchford in 1780 and died in Phelps, NY 1815. He married Debora Brown the grand daughter of the Lord High Mayor of London. Both he and his wife are buried in the Joslyn cemetery near Oak's Corners. The estates in England are now owned by the Right Honorable Lord of Hawksbury.

Tradition says that because of financial difficulties and family disagreements William and his wife Debora came to America with their children in 1805, bringing property enough to finance a good start in this country. They bought a large tract of land, erected beautiful houses for the sons and lived in excellent style. A good story of Capt. Ottley is found in an old paper: He is said to have had a disagreement with a neighbor and to have used strong language to him, whereon the neighbor said, "You are no gentleman sir, no gentlemen" and Ottley responded, "No, I left all of that behind me in England".

William Ottley married the daughter of Darius Peck and Lydia (Mack) Peck and had three sons and six daughters near Oak's Corners. Mary died single and Thomas married Lucinda, the daughter of Joshua Porter a neighbor and went to Seneca Castle where they had three daughters and six sons. There are many descendants now. William's family has also many descendants but few are not called Ottley, of course only Roy, and the family on Long Island.

The pedigree of Ottley is replete with mention of people of note. Among them will be found seven knights of various orders, marriages with ten knights by the daughters of Ottley, two marriages with Baonetcys, one bishop, four rectors, one territorial governor, a Chief Justice of Grenada, and a Keeper of Prints in the British Museum.

The Old Ottley House, Shrewsbury
X X X * * * * * X X X

An ancient residence of the Ottley family is on Market Street, Shrewsbury. This building, now used commercially, was formerly the Talbot Hotel, one of the posting-places in the stage-coach days. Previous to 1880 it was used as police offices and still remained over the door the sign of a hostel the life-sized figure of a hound with two heads as brackets, this still remained in 1918 when Harmon Ottley visited the locality. The old stables remained, and occupied the original court-yard. There were two leaden water spouts dated 1777. The rear part of the building is older, and one portion, with a ground floor (probably the original hall) has a fine old plastered ceiling with Tudor roses of large size. During some repair work a few years ago, in the upper part of the building, a beam was uncovered. It was conjectured to have belonged to the original building. This was incised with the date 1448. This has now been enclosed and cannot be viewed. The spacious hall which must have resounded with jollity, still remains nearly entire, excepting that the narrow pointed windows have been altered to square ones. The panels between the quartrefoils made by the timbers of the lofty roof, are richly adorned and the whole is surrounded by a cornice with small gothic arches. The passage way to the hall has a pointed arch recessed with numerous ribs. Beneath this hall are extensive vaults. The hall with its flight of stone steps, and the timbered roof of the adjoining room, are now almost the only traces of antiquity visible, the building having recently been modernized and divided. From the short pointed arch and its round mouldings with flat ribs, its lancet windows recently destroyed, this building is conceived to have been from the early fourteenth century. The erasure of these old characteristics is the more to be regretted as there is not in all England to be seen so curious a specimen of the "old embattled mansion" of early times. In the Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington, D.C. will be found several studies in etching from this building. They are in the Department of Architectural Design and are labeled "from the Old Talbot Inn, Shrewsbury".

Note: Lucetta Ottley, widow of James Ottley, Glen Cove, Long Island, has built a house from plans secured by an architect of this old place. It is said to be very quaint and different from many.

This family is first found in Essex County, England and the first ancestor that we can substantiate is:

- Thomas Gates, esq. of Highcastor and Thustenbie, born 1327
William his son

Sir Goeffrey Gates, son of William, married Agnes, the daughter of Sir Thomas Baldington of Aldresburg in Oxford Co.

William Gates, their son married Mabel the daughter and heiress of Sir. Thomas Capdow of Highcastor, Essex Co. (her mother was Ann, the daughter of Thomas Fleming of Essex.)

Goeffrey Gates their son, married Elizabeth the daughter of Sir. Thomas Clapton, Knight of Kenywell, Sussex and their son

Goeffrey Gates, Jr. married _____ Pascal then came Goeffrey Gates who married Jane Wentworth and his son was

Peter Gates, of London, who married Mary Joslyn and had Thomas Gates, of Norwich, Norfolk Co.

These are the generations of the Gates family in England before coming to this continent. The second son Stephen Gates, born in Norwich, England came to Hingham, Mass. on the ship "Diligent" bringing his wife who was Ann Hill, and two children (girls) 1638. He died in Cambridge in 1662 having had two sons born in America.

Stephen Gates, born in Cambridge, Mass. in 1640 married Sarah the daughter of George Woodward of Watertown, Mass. and they had:

Simon Gates, he was of Stowe and he married Hannah Benjamin. Her father was a minister and Simon often acted as a guide for the missionaries who preached to the Indians. Their marriage took place at Stowe May 24, 1688, and their son was born at Barre, May 24, 1704, named Benjamin Gates and he married Bethulia Rice of Barre in 1737. They had seven children several of them being soldiers in the Revolution.

One of these was:

William⁵ Gates, born at Barre, but later residing at Conway^m where he married, Sept. 21, 1756 Jane Rice. Both of these died in Phelps and are buried in the old Gates Cemetery on the Castle road back of the Gates sub-station. Their children were:

Solomon born 1761 married Esther Whitney

Eunice born 1763 married Thomas Cathcart - Jenny m thos

Mary born 1765 married John Densmore Cathcart

William born 1768 married Vashti Abbott See

Aaron born 1771 married Anna Scott Will

Benjamin⁶ born 1777 married Nancy Dexter of father

All of these persons are buried in the old cemetery referred to just off the Geneva-Castle road to the south at the Gates farm. The father, William⁵ and his son Solomon⁶ served in the Revolution as did his brothers, Aason⁵, Israel⁵, Jonathan⁵ and Benjamin⁵. They had a sister, Eliza⁵. These were all children of Benjamin⁴ and Bethulia.

Benjamin⁶ Gates, born in Conway, Mass. on July 16, 1777, died in Phelps February 3, 1866. He married at Conway, Nancy Dexter and she dies in Phelps February 24, 1854. He married second Rachel Winters, who survived him and who with Benjamin became members of the First Baptist Church in the village of Phelps in 1855. In an old directory of Phelps (1862) his address is given as South Wayne street. It is said that he gave the land on which the church is built in 1840 and that he did much of the interior work himself. He had a carpenter and joiners ship on South St. at the address given in the directory (now on the corner of Quarry St.) and quarries situated back of this location were the property of Benjamin Gates. The children of Nancy Gates were:

William⁷ born Oct. 1, 1805

Note: A daughter of the William⁷ Gates who married Achia Moody was Calista⁸, the wife of William Salisbury of Melvin Hill and became the mother of William⁹, George⁹, Ed⁹, Ida⁹, Emma⁹ and Albert⁹ Salisbury. Thus making them cousins to the children of Eliza⁷ Gates and William Ottley. Emma Ridley and Calista⁸ Salisbury went west in 1895 to visit the families of William Gates⁷ at Cleveland, Ohio and of Eliza (Ottley) Ray in Michigan.

But if it should so happen that there was enough to pay more than three hundred (300) dollars to each household, then the remainder shall be given to my daughter Minerva's daughter Helen Swan Stewart.

I hereby make Elisha Peck to be my executor of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me made, and also give my executor all power to sell at auction or otherwise anything that he shall deem best for carrying out the provisions of this my last will and testament. . .

N.B. It shall be seen that my executor is somewhat advanced in years; if any casualty should take place so as to dis-qualify him to perform this service then his son, Prof. Lewis Peck shall perform the office.

In witness here-of I have subscribed my name and set my seal,

LINEAGE OF NANCY DEXTER

She was born at Rochester, Mass. May 22, 1781 and she married Benjamin Gates of Conway according to the Dexter Genealogy, altho the parentage of Gates is not there given. She was the daughter of Seth Dexter and her lineage is, her father, Seth 5, Seth 4, Benjamin 3, William 2, Thomas 1, who was the immigrant settler, in America

Thomas Dexter came to America either with Endicott in 1629, or with Winthrop in 1630. He had several children and servants, but no wife on landing. He soon owned a farm of 800 acres at Lynn, which he sold in the early days to Alderman of Bristol, England. He was called "Former Dexter" altho he possessed a fine education and wrote fluently. He lived in good style for the times, in a grand house on the west side of the Sagus river, keeping many servants. He built a bridge over the river (about where the iron-work is now located), and later a weir (dam). In 1640 he built a mill. He was a cantankerous man, very obstinate, and had a lawsuit which he kept in the court for 38 years. Was made free-man (joined the church) in 1657. His son Thomas took over the mill and estates at Sandwich, and he retired to the home of his daughter in Boston- Mrs. Oliver- in 1677, having been known as Ensign Dexter. He left five children mentioned in his will.

Thomas Dexter, married Elizabeth Vincent in 1648 and was constable of Sandwich for many years and also held other offices there.

William Dexter who by some chance was born in England, was living on Cape Cod at Barnstable. Tradition says that he married Sarah Vincent and removed to Rochester, Mass. where they had six sons, three returning to Barnstable. William died in 1694 having been interested with Kenelm Winslow, Wm. Bradford, Thomas Hinkley, Rev. Samuel Arnold and others in land promotion at Rochester.

Benjamin Dexter was born at Rochester in (1734). He married Sarah Arnold, daughter of Rev. Samuel Arnold. He was the second minister at Rochester and his father was the Samuel Arnold who was the first minister at Marshfield, Mass.

Benjamin Dexter sold much land to Barlow in (1693, to Hammond in 1699, to Corning in 1715, and to Winslow in 1723, all of which he had inherited from his father. He dies in 1752, leaving 1047 pounds estate and eleven children.

Seth Dexter was born at Rochester, Mass. Oct. 3, 1718 and he dies April 6, 1793. He was left his father's homestead (not to include the mill site). He was a clothier, and was on the Committee of Correspondence before the Revolution. He was town clerk 1750 to 1756. A deacon in the church and left nine children of which Seth was the eldest.

Seth Dexter, Jr. was born at Rochester, Mass. Dec. 28, 1743. He was in the Revolutionary War, and his services will be found in Mass. men in the Revolution, which is to be found in almost any library. It is in alphabetical order and easily found. He married Debora Haskell, they had eleven children, of which Nancy was the sixth. He had inherited lands from his father, also 1/2 of his wearing apparel and a copy of Williard's "Body of the Divinity". He bought many pieces of property around Rochester, among them the house of his father-in-law, Thomas Haskell, where the family resided. His daughter Nancy married Benjamin Gates and migrated to the "Genesee Country" with the others of the Gates family in 1804.

ANNA MARRIED
600 OHLEY

William Ridley, born in England, died at Manchester N.Y. June 8, 1851. He is buried in the old cemetery in the village, quite close to the side walk. The grave is marked by a good sized tomb-stone with clear carving. He was a native of Sussex, and married for a second wife, Margaret Cornford of Essex Co. She was the daughter of William and Margaret (Patterson) Cornford. It is said that this family lived 12 miles from a settlement and that their name was really Cornwallis, not Cornford. The marriage was performed at Beckly church (Aunt Anne had a picture of this old church that had belonged to Grandma Melvin) so I am sure this is the same family. They had one son, born in England and when he was 12 years old they came to America settling at Manchester. The sons of the first wife went to Australia at about the same time, a cousin of Thomas, Williams' son, lived with his sister in Phelps. His name was Matthew, and all the Ridleys about Newark and Phelps are descended from him. Another cousin William also came to Manchester at this time. His children scattered, to Michigan, Gorham and Waterloo, N.Y. and have descendents at these places today. After the death of William Ridley in Manchester in 1852, his widow married Almon Melvin, a brother of Dr. John Melvin of Manchester, her son Thomas Ridley married his cousin Mahalia Ridley who was a daughter of the other William Ridley who had married in England to Sarah Orfins. Mahalia had a brother William Wadsworth Ridley whose wife was an English girl, Elizabeth Faulty by name. This is the "Uncle Bill" Ridley that Dad used to speak of and his home was at the corners in Chapin (the big house way back from the road near the school-house). He is buried in the cemetery east of Chapin on the Orleans road. Had no children. His brother George had a store in Waterloo in the early days, all the Seneca County Ridleys are his descendants of George Ridley. Thomas and Mahalia had two children, Albert and Anna, when their mother died at the home of her brother in Michigan where she had gone for a visit, this left the children in the care of their grand-mother who had become Mrs. Melvin and they grew up at Melvin Hill. Mr. Melvin had taken George Ottley to live with him when George's mother died, and he married Anna Ridley, at about that time '72. Albert Ridley was married to Emma Ottley, his sister. Albert Ridley was very active in the Order of "Good Templars" which was active at that time. He was a Mason, being a member of the Victor Lodge. He was also a member of the Victor Band, and lived several years at Victor. For some reason he and his wife disagreed and he left her in 1882. She returned to her former home - Melvin Hill - with two boys

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace
Where there is hatred . . . let me sow love
Where there is injury . . . pardon
Where there is doubt . . . faith.
Where there is despair . . . hope.
Where there is darkness . . . light
Where there is sadness . . . joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled . . . as to console,
To be understood . . . as to

To be loved . . . as to love,

Dear Jackie,

Well, I finally was able to get ^{photo} copies made of my grandparents Carlton & Helen Ridley for you. I apologize for taking so long, but I've been very busy at work.
Finally found time to find someone who could make the reprints last week during our winter school break. The first person I contacted wanted an exorbitant amount of money, a couple of others needed to send the photos out of town to do the job but on my 4th try I found a company with their own reproduction photo lab and they were able to do the job for $10⁰⁰. Therefore, I'm enclosing $10⁰⁰ for you which is the charge from your $20 check.

I hope these will be okay - I had them refinished in the matte look rather than glossy as I thought it made them

title on 3 September 1811, after he had built a grist and saw mill at the falls. He built a log cabin and moved part of his family from his farm at Melvin Hill. In 1813 he built the first frame house in Wolcott, now located at 5 Smith Street. He became interested in the development of several industries here and purchased large tracts of land. He gave sites for the school, church, and sold many parcels of property on the partial payment plan. Many proved to be poor risks and he soon became involved with the Bank of Geneva, where he obtained loans to carry out his benevolent plans. By 1830 these poor investments caused him to lose his property there. He moved back to the Melvin Hill farm, which he had kept free from indebtedness, about 1822, leaving his son Alanson to manage the Wolcott farm.

Jonathan applied for a Revolutionary War pension on 8 August 1832, while living with his son, Jonathan, at Manchester, Ontario County, New York. Having served in the Massachusetts Line, he received pension # S-13915.

REV. NOAH BARRELL'S RECORD OF MARRIAGES,
1823-1874

Communicated by GEORGE MORTON BARRELL of Gloucester, Mass.

THE following records have been abridged from the records kept by Rev. Noah⁷ Barrell (Colburn,⁶ Colburn,⁴ William,⁴ William,⁸ John,⁸ George¹ of Boston, Mass.) of the marriages solemnized by him during the years 1823-1874.

Noah Barrell was born at Hartford, Washington Co., N. Y., 5 May 1794,* became a Baptist minister, and died at Geneva, Walworth Co., Wis., 16 Apr. 1875. Of the 253 marriages solemnized by him, the first 153 (in the years 1823-1848) and a later one (in 1849) took place in seven different counties in northern and central New York, viz., in Jefferson, St. Lawrence, Genesee, Cayuga, Ontario, Wayne, and Steuben Counties, the following 37 (in the years 1849-1856), except one in 1849 in Steuben Co., N. Y., were celebrated in three different counties (Geauga, Ashtabula, and Medina) in northeastern Ohio, and the remaining 63 (in the years 1857-1874), except one in 1869 in Lee Co., Ill., were performed in Walworth and Racine Counties, in southeastern Wisconsin.

In preparing these records for publication the words "Married" or "Marriage solemnized by me," with which most of the entries begin, have been omitted, dates have been given with the usual abbreviations, and the name "Noah Barrell," which is appended to almost every marriage record, has also been omitted, except where it is preceded or followed by a title or descriptive phrase, such as "Rev." or "Pastor of Baptist Church." In almost every entry the minister stated the amount of his fee, which has been omitted in the printed abridgement — in many cases only $1.00, in some cases $1.50, $2.00, $3.00, or other small sums, in about thirty cases $5.00, and in two cases $10.00. The larger fees, $5.00 and $10.00, were received for the most part from the later marriages, solemnized in Wisconsin. The word "County" of the original record has been

WIDOW'S PETITION

GIFFY LEMUNYON petitioned for her share, or "Dower Rights", July 16, 1838 and her petitioned mentioned minor heirs: William & John Lemunyon, age 10 and 5 respectively, children of John Lemunyon, Jr.: Benjamin Depue, about 18, in Ohio; Horace Miller, age 17 years; John Miller, age 10 years; Henry Miller, age 7 years; John Fish, about 16 years, residents of Michigan.

Miss Bertha Warner, great grand-daughter of John and Elizabeth (Lemunyon) Miller excerpted from an old family letter: Dated Jun 29, 1837, to John Miller & wife from John Lemunyon, Jr., from Manchester saying John Lemunyon, Sr. had died June 13th. $100 was left to each of five girls, Lydia, Polly, Elizabeth, Maribah, and Roby, "...and to your son John, and Henry, Jr. and John Fish & Benjamin Depew and Horace Miller something like 70 or 80 acres of land..."

On Jan. 15, 1811, Polly Lemunyon married Benjamin Depue of Farmington, Ontario County, New York. We suppose she had a son, Benjamin, Jr. by him, and later married Erastus Coates, going to Ohio with him and taking her son, Benjamin Depue with her. At the time of this report, (December, 1982), we have not positively identified this person, nor Horace Miller. We know Horace does not belong to John Miller, and we have a large number of children for Henry Miller, but no Horace. Horace seems a bit old to be Henry's son - yet it is possible.

* WILLIAM LEMUNYON (JULY 6, 1789 - AUGUST 12, 1871)

The Last Will and Testament of John Lemunyon (1766-1837) of Manchester, Ontario County, New York, named, among other children, a son, William. A citation of heirs appearing in the "Albany Argus" Aug. 25, 1837 identified him further as William Lemunyon of Manchester, Ontario County, New York.

Lemunyon, and Ephriam Wright, a brother-in-law.

PHILIP LEMUNYON (1756-1850)

Arnold's "Vital Records of Rhode Island", vol. 4 page 93 (published at Providence, R.I., 1893) show that Phillip Lemunyon, son of Samuel and Phebe, was born at Tiverton, Rhode Island, Sept. 7, 1756. He had brothers, Thomas, John, and Howard. There is a stone in the Pioneer Cemetery, three miles east of Manchester, Ontario County, New York, for Philip Lemunyon who died July 24, 1850, in his 92nd year, and for Sylva, wife of Philip who died January 24, 1832, in her 81st year.

The reader will note we already have a discrepancy in dates, for Philip should have been in his 94th year at the time of his death. We will find other variations as we go on, and in the spelling of his name also, but since we have his pension papers, his will, and a statement by two of his brothers, we have proof beyond reasonable doubt of whom we are writing.

Philip's Pension: Philip Lamunyon (#S28783) : State of New York, Ontario County:

On this twenty-eighth day of August 1832 personally appeared in open Court before the Judges of the County Court now sitting, Philip Lamunyon resident of the town of Manchester, County and State aforesaid, aged Seventy four years, who being first duly sworn according to Law, doth on his Oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed 7 June 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named Officers and served as herein stated:

1st At Tiverton in the State of Rhode Island, in May, 1775 in Captain Thomas Gray's Company in Colonel Church's Regiment, he enlisted for nine months and marched through Warren and Tauton to Roxbury, and was ordered to Prospect Hill and then helped to build the Fort, and there done duty until his time expired when he was honorably discharged.

2nd At Tiverton as aforesaid, in February, 1776, he enlisted for one year in Captain Christopher Manchester's Company, in Colonel Richmond's Regiment, was first marched to Bristol and encamped on the island opposite Bristol, and there done (sic) duty the whole year and then discharged. Saw General Putnam there. The British ships lay off this place and he could often hear the Sentinels on board the ships at night.

3rd At Tiverton as aforesaid, after a few days he enlisted in February or 1st March, 1777, in Captain Bailey's Company in Colonel Topping's Reg't, enlisted for eighteen months, and served out the whole time. Was first marched to Rhode Island into Newport and was driven off by the British. Nearly all summer worked in the Fort, done duty all winter and in the spring was doing duty at "Fogland" after this was returned to the Island and worked in the Fort until the Fall of 1778, when about 300 men was detached under Command of Colonel Barton to go to Long Island to Sag Harbor to capture the stores and ammunition of the enemy at that place, and got 150 muskets, about 300 lb. powder, took 23 prisoners, killed 16 persons and then returned to New Haven. The expedition was in Whale Boats and we lost only one man. After 3 or 4 days we took the boats and returned to New Port where General Ezekiel Corning had command at this time. In about a week after this a British fleet of about 60 sail arrived in Newport Harbour, and he was then ordered to drive all the cattle off the Island, was pursued by the British who burned the Ferry House. Soon after this he was discharged at Howland's Ferry.

4th Immediately after enlisted for one year in Captain Philip Palmer's Company in Colonel Barton's Regiment and was employed in building the fort at Howland's Ferry and continued there during the year. At this time General Sullivan was in command and I went to the Island with him and came off with him, and at the end of my term of service, was discharged at Howland's Ferry and went home to Tiverton.

5th After this and about a week after my return home, was drafted in the Militia Captain Humphry Sherman's Company Colonel Crary's Regiment and was on guard for three months in the vicinity of Howland's Ferry. We hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present and declare that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State.

He has no documentary evidence. He was born in Tiverton, 7th December, 1756 (Arnold shows b. September 7, 1756), and lived there until 1800 and then moved to Manchester where he now resides. His brothers John Lamunyon and Howard Lamunyon know that he was in the service during the Revolutionary War, but did not serve with him and he knows of no person now living who served with him.

Sworn & Subscribed to the day and year aforesaid in open court "Philip Lamunyon"

"We, John Lamunyon & Howard Lamunyon both residing in the town of Manchester in the County and State aforesaid do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Philip Lamunyon who has subscribed and sworn to the above declaration that we believe him the neighborhood where he resides to have been a soldier of the Revolution & that we concur in that opinion and we further certify that we know the said Philip Lamunyon to have been a soldier or the Revolution.

"Subscribed and sworn the John Lemunyon day and year aforesaid in open court"

Pension was allowed of $80 per annum from March 1, 1831.

Although at the time of application he appears not to have any evidence of service except "traditional", Arnold's "Vital Records of Rhode Island", v. 12:204 show Philip Lemunyon, private in Col. Crary's Co., 1776, pay due # 13.6, 1. The National Archives has a copy which appears to have been abstracted from an original roll which shows Philip Lemunyon in Col. Crary's Regiment, R.I. State Troops, dated Bristol, Nov. 13, 1777, showing one month and two months; days wages, 1, 4; Philip Lemunyon on Roll of Col. Archibald Crary's Regiment, R.I. State Troops showing the sum of # 13, 6, 1.

In the 1840 census he was listed as a pensioner of the American Revolution as Philip Lemagnon, aged 85, living with Parson Butts in Manchester, Ontario County,

New York. (From a list, "Census of Pensioners for Revolutionary Service", page 90, published in 1841. Pardon Butts was one of his sons in-law.

6 Nov., 1782: Samuel & Phebe Lemunyon of Tiverton conveyed land to Philip Lemunyon for 3 Lb. Silver, land adjacent to Samuel's homestead, to Philip, laborer.

Wit: Thomas Durfee William Hart Tiv. Land Recs: 3:286

1782: Tiverton Census: Philip LaMorian, head of family. 1783: Daughter Ruth born to Philip & Silva Lemunyon. (Ruth Butts 1783-1844, married Pardon Butts - D.A.R. Lineages, 160-46.

9 March, 1790: John Stafford of Tiverton for $20 silver conveyed 1 1/2 acres to Philip Lemunyon, Yoeman. (Tiv. 3:662). 1790: First Federal Census, Tiverton; Philip LaMorian, head of a family, 1 male over 16, 4 females.

1797 (?) A list purporting to be a list of members present February 13, 1797, at Baptist Church of Farmington, Ontario Co., N.Y. lists Philip, John, Richard, Polly, Sylvia, and Ruth Lemunyon, but evidence points to their coming in 1800 or even later.

29 March, 1790: Philip & Silva Lemunyon convey to Amos Mosher (Tiverton recs: 5:259).

1800: 2nd Federal Census: Tiverton: Philip Lamunyon, 1 male, 26-45; 1 female 10-16, 1, 16-26. 1 over 45 (his wife was older, born ca 1753).

5 January, 1801: Philip & Silvia Lemunyon of Tiverton conveyed to George Durfee. (Tiverton recs: 6:215).

- ✧ "History of Ontario County, New York" Evarts, Ensign & Evarts, N.Y., Phila., 1876 states that the 1st settlers on Stafford St., in Manchester were Zuriel Fish and Philip LaMunyon from R.I. in the winter of 1799-1800.

Conover's "History of Ontario County, New York", N.Y., 1893, page 330 lists as a settler of Manchester, Philip LaMueuix!

1810: 3rd Federal Census: Manchester, Ontario County, New York, Philip Munyon headed a family with 1 male over 45; 1 female, 16-26, and 1, 45 or older.

1820: 4th Federal Census: Manchester: #531, Philip Lemunyon, 1 male over 45; 2 females under 10; 1, 26-45; one 45 or older. Next to him, #532 was son-in-law, Pardon Butts, and #534 was probably another son-in-law, Abraham Fish. Philip has not been found in the 1830 census, but possibly, was living son-in-law Pardon Butts, as he was in the 1840 census.

✧ 1844: LAST WILL & TESTAMENT OF PHILIP LEMUNYON:

I, Phillip Lemunyon considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory (blessed be the Almighty God for the same) do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, (that is to say) first I give and bequeath unto my daughter Amy Osgood the sum of Two dollars; also I give and bequeath unto the heirs of Abram Fish, and my daughter Patience Fish, wife of Abram now deceased the Sum of two dollars also. I give and bequeath unto my granddaughters Mary VanWagoner and Elisa Chapell, children of my daughter Ruth, the sum of two dollars to be paid to them so soon as one year after my decease shall be Expired. Also I give and devise to my grand daughters Silvia Butts and Phebe Butts children of my daughter Ruth, their heirs and assigns all that messuage pertaintment (?) situated lying and being in the said town and county and state aforesaid together with all my other freehold Estate whatever to be held by them their heirs and assigns for ever, and lastly as to all the rest, residue and remainder of my personal estate, goods and chattels of what kind and nature soever, I give and bequeath the same to my Grand daughters Silvia Butts and Phebe Butts after payment of my debts, legacies, and funeral expenses. I do give and bequeath unto them their heirs and assigns to use for their own use and benefit absolutely, and I do hereby constitute and appoint my said grand daughter Silvia Butts Sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament, In witness whereof I have made set my hand and seal the ----day of Sept., in the year of our Lord, 1844.

His Philip X Lemunion Mark

The Will and probate record of Philip is found in the Surrogate's Office, Box 758, Canandaigua, Ontaio County, New York.

A petition by Samuel and Lovina Walker named the heirs of Philip Lemunyon:

His daughter, Amy, wife of Elihu Osgood; grandchildren, Polly Risley of Crawford Co., Pa., Ridell Fish of same place; Lyman Fish, Abraham Fish of Hillsdale Co., Mich.; Barbara Smith, wife of Aaron. in Michigan: Philip & Thomas Fish of Manchester: Catherine Rice, wife of Myron Rice, children of Patience Fish, deceased daughter of testator.

Eliza Chappel, wife of James; Phebe B. Chappel & Silvia, children of Ruth Butts, deceased daughter of Philip; Albert E., and Amelia VanWaggoner, children of Mary VanWaggoner, deceased daughter of Ruth Butts; all heirs of age except Albert E. and Amelia J. VanWaggoner.

Samuel Walker; Sylvia Walker

CITATION OF HEIRS: From the "Albany Argus", Amy Osgood, wife of Elihu; Philip Fish; Thomas Fish; Catherine Rice, wife of Myron Rice; Eliza Chappel, wife of James; Phebe Butts & Sylvia Walker, wife of John; Riall Fish; Lynn Fish of Hillsdale Co., Mich; Barbara Smith, wife of Aaron, in Michigan; Albert & Amelia J. VanWaggoner, infants, of Manchester.

According to Philip's stone in the Pioneer Cemetery at Manchester, he died July 24, 1850, in his 92nd year. The Town Records of Tiverton say he was born Sept. 7, 1756 (according to Arnold) and in his pension application, Philip in 1832, was listed as 74 years old, born December 7, 1756. Upon checking the actual 1840 census, Philip was clearly shown to be Philip Lemunyon, aged 86, living with Pardon Butts of Manchester, not 'Lemagnon', aged 85 in the published version! In 1972, we reported to the Ontario County Historical Society at Canandaigua that Philip's grave, while well marked, was not marked by the DAR or SAR as a Revolutionary Veteran. We were told that in the spring or summer of 1973 this would be taken care of.

The 1850 Federal Census of Manchester (supposedly reported 8th Aug., 1850):- p 616: 106:106 Walker, Samuel, ae 33, b. NY ", Sylvia, 31 " ", Lorina M. 2 " ", Edgar E. 1 " Lamunion, Philip 96 RI Butts, Phebe 23 NY

Melvin Hill Corn.
by Burdick

title on 3 September 1811, after he had built a grist and saw mill at the falls. He built a log cabin and moved part of his family from his farm at Melvin Hill. In 1813 he built the first frame house in Wolcott, now located at 5 Smith Street. He became interested in the development of several industries here and purchased large tracts of land. He gave sites for the school, church, and sold many parcels of property on the partial payment plan. Many proved to be poor risks and he soon became involved with the Bank of Geneva, where he obtained loans to carry out his benevolent plans. By 1830 these poor investments caused him to lose his property there. He moved back to the Melvin Hill farm, which he had kept free from indebtedness, about 1822, leaving his son Alanson to manage the Wolcott farm.

Jonathan applied for a Revolutionary War pension on 8 August 1832, while living with his son, Jonathan, at Manchester, Ontario County, New York. Having served in the Massachusetts Line, he received pension # S-13915. (Obituary: Geneva Courier, 6 July 1841, list death as 25th ult..)

JONATHAN, \ Died \ Dec. 25, 1861 \ aged 82 yrs. 10 \ m's. & 27 d's.
[Lot 48, Plot 4]

{Jonathan, Jr., was the son of Jonathan Melvin and Beulah Leland, born on Thursday, 28 January 1779, at Ashfield, Massachusetts. Jonathan was the husband of (1) Clarry Castle and (2) Rebecca Wilder. In 1854, he married (3) Sally Morrison, widow of Dr. George Morrison of Utica, Oneida County, New York. About 1811 Jonathan, Jr., built a house on the south side of the Clyde River. This house was made of hand hewn logs. The first town meeting of Galen was held in this house, and Jonathan was elected the first supervisor. Jonathan, Jr., moved his family to Manchester, New York, about 1814. The Melvin Farm was transferred to Jonathan, Jr., by 1830. At the time his will (Liber 139, page 123-129) was distributed, of his thirteen children only three, Almon, John, and Maria were surviving.

6. David, born 29 October 1690, died 18 November 1745, married Mary Farrar, daughter of Jacob, on 9 February 1716; and
7. Benjamin, born 17 February 1694/95.

John¹ then married (2) Margaret Shanesbury on 27 August 1696. Their children were

1. Eleazer, born in Concord, 28 June 1703, died at Concord on 18 October 1754, married Mary Stow, daughter of Nathaniel Stow and Ruth Meriam. Many of his descendants are said to have served during the French and Indian Wars and the Revolutionary War; and
2. Margaret, twin to Eliazer, married Archibald McKallows.

David and Eleazer Melvin were privates in Captain Lovewell's expedition against the Indians in 1725. They both survived the disastrous fight near Fryeburg, Maine, on 8 May. David was a captain in Colonel Willard's 4th Massachusetts regiment at the capture of Louisbourg in 1745 and received a wound there which caused his death on 18 November 1745, after his return home. Eleazer was a lieutenant in his brother David's company in 1745. In 1746 Eleazer commanded a company in an expedition to Canada and on his return went with 25 men to Lunenburg, Massachusetts, to protect the settlers against Indian raids. From March to September of 1747, he was stationed at Northfield, Massachusetts.

John¹ died at Concord on 21 August 1726, at an age of 74 years.

Jonathan², was born at Charlestown. He was a cooper in 1724. He married Sarah Hartwell on 28 February 1714 in Concord. Sarah was born on 28 July 1694, the daughter of Ebenezer Hartwell and Sarah Smedley. The children of Jonathan and Sarah, born at Concord include

1. Sarah, born 23 June 1716, married Joseph Barnes of Acton on 19 March 1735/36, and had 6 children;
2. Jonathan³, born 12 October 1718;
3. John, born 21 May 1721, married Hannah Heald, who was born 1 April 1727;

5. Josiah, born 14 June 1727, died 23 February 1809, married Lydia Barrett on 3 March 1757. Lydia was born on 6 June 1738;
6. Nathan, born 25 June 1729, died 6 January 1807, at Cambridge, Lamoille County, Vermont, married Anna (Foster) about 1759. Anna died on 14 December 1819. Their children include Anna, who married Jacob Holt; Sarah; Phebe; Hepsiah, who married Jonah Whipple; Nathan; Theodore, who married Bethiah Ellis; Moses, born circa 1775, married November, 1800, to Mary Crocker Runnels, and died in 1811; and Asenath, who married Judge Joel Barbe; and
7. Amos, born 4 July 1731.

Jonathan² died at Concord on 11 February 1737 and is interred at Hill Burying Ground. He made his will on 26 May 1733, in which he gave his wife the household goods, a Negro girl, the west end of the dwelling, and one-third of his land. 104 acres were given to his son Jonathan³, and 52 acres each to his sons John and Ebenezer. After Jonathan's death, Sarah married (2) Elisha Smith on 15 April 1741, and moved to Worcester, Worcester County, Massachusetts, where she died on 26 January 1769.

Captain Jonathan³ Melvin was born in Concord on 12 October 1718. He married Mary Brooks at Hollis, Grafton County, New Hampshire, on 4 December 1750. Their son was Jonathan⁴, born at Hollis on 14 January 1752.

The Melvin family seems to have been in the enterprise of purchasing and selling land throughout its history. This is seen throughout the early land records in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Jonathan² engaged in this enterprise and settled that part of "Ancient Dunstable Massachusetts," which was later incorporated as Hollis, New Hampshire. Our Melvin Hill Jonathan⁴ bought and sold properties in Massachusetts to such names as Jesse Severance and John Newhall, who later found their way to Phelps, New York.
